Lisa Ray Koenig's career has taken many paths. from working on cruise ships to being stranded at sea (but that's another story) to finding herself behind the microphone at various local radio stations. During her days in radio she found herself also writing a bi-weekly column called "Fifty Shades of Ray" sharing stories of her daily life. Lisa has since retired from radio broadcasting and has now found a new relaxing career as a Registered Reflexologist and an Ayurvedic Indie Head Masseuse, along with being an Executive Director for the Gibbard District in Napanee.
